

March 2017 Calendar

Program Meeting, Wednesday, March 15, 1:30 P.M.

Augustana Lutheran Church, 5500 South Woodlawn Avenue

Filling Plates--A Look at the Greater Chicago Food Depository

Jo-Elle Munchak, a ten-year volunteer at GCFD, will share its history, work and volunteer opportunities. This important organization provides food for hungry people in Cook County while striving to end hunger here. GCFD provides food for the Hyde Park Kenwood Open Kitchen that the Service League supports.

President's Message	Please join me at our monthly program meeting to learn about the services that the Greater Chicago Food Depository provides to our needy neighbors. GCFD works with 700 different agencies, including the Open Kitchen and our local food pantries to distribute the equivalent of 160,000 meals daily to the hungry of Cook County. Save the date: On April 6 please volunteer with other Service League members at GCFD for an afternoon repack session. Further details will be available at the March program meeting. On March 2, I hope that you will join other Service League members in supporting young musicians at the "Tea Time Concert" in Fulton Recital Hall. (See the Music Section announcement for further information.)
Thank You	Thank you to Friends of the Service League's Homecoming Benefit, Nadine Foster and Pearl H. Reizer, for their contributions.
